

CONTRIBUTION TO THE WEBSITE: “LEARNING FOR EQUALITY IN ROTTERDAM”

You are receiving this information because you contributed to a student assignment as interviewee, source, or in another way and we would like to include the assignment on the website “Learning for equality in Rotterdam.” First, we want to make sure that you are properly informed and agree.

The project

Learning for Equality is an online platform that selects and publishes knowledge produced by EUR students in different courses and theses. It is part of a larger project called “Communicating and improving students’ interdisciplinary engagement with social (in)justice.” By showcasing students’ work on local social inequalities and efforts to fight them, the website aims at engaging EUR experts, students, and the wider public in a multidisciplinary discussion about these issues. It also wants to stimulate students to reflect on the implications and impact of their work, and of communicating knowledge, more generally.

Your consent

The website’s team and the student(s)/author(s) of the assignment would like to include it in the website’s “Collection.” To do so, we need to ensure that you (and all the people who contributed to the assignment) can review the parts in which they are mentioned. Based on that, we need to know:

- a) Do you agree with reference(s) to you/your contribution being included?
- b) Shall anything related to you be removed?
- c) Shall something about you be anonymized?

Contact

Please share your answers with the student(s)/author(s). They will respect your decision and report it to the project team truthfully. Please contact us for any questions, comments, and/or concerns.

Thank you very much!
Learning for Equality team (4equalityinrdam@eur.nl)