Transition Regulation 2023

Not applicable

Transition Regulation 2022

Per September 2021 the following changes in Year 3 (IBEB majors) and Year 4 (electives) have become effective:

Old courses Year 3/Year 4 Academic year 2021-2022		Substitute courses Year 3/Year 4 Academic year 2022-2023
FEB13091	Diversity Marketing (4 ec)	n/a
FEB13101	Welfare Analysis and Economic Policy (4 ec)	FEB13105	Public Finance (4 ec)
FEB43007	Economics of Taxation (4 ec)

Senior students who have obtained a valid but insufficient result for FEB13091-Diversity Marketing in a previous academic year, can take examinations in this course only in block 3 and the resit period of the academic year 2022-2023.

A previously achieved result for the Diversity Marketing assignment will remain valid only in 2022-2023.

The courses Welfare Analysis and Economic Policy and Economics of Taxation have been merged into one new course Public Finance, offered in block 3.

Senior students who have obtained a valid but insufficient result for FEB43007 Economics or Taxation in a previous academic year, can take examinations in the substitute course Public Finance in block 3 and the resit period of the academic year 2022-2023.

Senior students who have obtained a valid but insufficient result for FEB13101 Welfare Analysis and Economic Policy in a previous academic year are advised to participate in the substitute course Public Finance in block 3.

Transition Regulation 2021

Per September 2021 the following changes in Year 3 of the BSc2 programme have become effective:

Students with a positive Binding Study Advice can start with the revised Year 2 of the BSc2 programme in September 2020.

Senior students follow the course FEB12015-Introduction to Behavioural Economics as part of the IBEB Bachelor 2 in Year 2.

Senior students follow the course FEB12001X-Applied Microeconomics in Year 2 and FEB12004X-International Economics in Year 3.

Senior students who have obtained an invalid or a valid but insufficient (non-compensable) result for FEB21024X-Marketing (BSc2) in 2019-2020, only have the possibility to take examinations in this course (both the regular examination and the resit examination) in the academic year 2020-2021. They also have the possibility to complete the new IBEB Bachelor 1 course FEB12018X-Marketing (IBEB).

Senior students who have not yet passed FEB12002X-Philosophy of Economics in Year 1 can complete this course in block 5 of the academic year 2020-2021 or complete the new Year 2 course FEB11020X-Philosophy in block 4 instead.

Year 3

As of the academic year 2020-2021, the composition of Year 3 of the BSc2 programme has been revised: the course FEM11056 Game Theory and its Applications (4 ec) has been replaced by the Econometrics Bachelor 3 course FEB23017-Mathematical Economics (old). Also, FEB12004X-International Economics has been moved from Year 3 to Year 2, and FEB12001X-Applied Microeconomics from Year 2 to Year 3.

Old courses Year 3 Academic year 2019-2020			Substitute courses Year 3 Academic year 2020-2021
moved from Year 2		block3	FEB12001X	Applied Microeconomics (4 ec)	block1

Transition Regulation 2019

As of the academic year 2019-2020, the composition of Year 2 of the BSc2 programme has been revised: the IBEB Bachelor 1 course FEB11008-Marketing (8 ec) has been replaced by the new course FEB21024X Marketing (BSc2) (4 ec). Also the former IBEB Bachelor 2 course FEB12015-Introduction to Behavioural Economics (4 ec) has become an IBEB Bachelor-1 course.

Students with a positive Binding Study Advice can start with the revised Year 2 of the BSc2 programme in September 2019.

For senior students, Year 2 of the BSc2 programme remains unchanged.

Senior students follow FEB12015-Introduction to Behavioural Economics in IBEB Bachelor 2.

Senior students who have obtained an invalid or a valid but insufficient (non-compensable) result for FEB11008-Marketing in an earlier academic year, only have the possibility to take examinations in this course (both the regular examination and the resit examination) in the academic year 2019-2020. Already obtained results for the assignments, the marketing plan and the interim test remain valid in 2019-2020 only.

Senior students who have not yet passed FEB12002-Philosophy of Economics in Year 1 can complete this course in block 5 of the academic year 2019-2020.

Transition Regulation 2018

As of the academic year 2018-2019, the composition of the IBEB Majors has been revised.

Students who have started an IBEB Major in an earlier academic year, may still complete this Major in the old composition of the academic year 2017-2018 or earlier. This also applies to the Major Accounting and Finance which is no longer offered as of the academic year 2018-2019.

Transition Regulation 2017
